

Hello, I'm David and I'm the one behind the camera. My passion is photography. So much so that I've been doing it for the past 15 years and love capturing moments that tell the story of your wedding day. From the biggest moment of the day to the small details that draw a smile, my job is to capture the essence of the day so when you look back at your photos it reflects your unique wedding experience.

Having spent more than a decade working at aberdeenphoto.com, being trained in the traditional style of photography, as well as developing my own creative style in that time, I learned that no matter how big or small your wedding party may be, I will always find time to fit in a fusion of family and couple shots whilst capturing all the little details of your day. My aim is to make your day as fun and relaxed as possible!

I'd love to hear about the plans for your big day and how we can capture it, so please do get in touch for a chat.

What Norwood clients say

"David was amazing from start to finish, he was great with the kids! Many thanks"

Jade & Daniel at Norwood Hall

"I think David has done an amazing job. I love the photos he has taken and agree he did absolutely fantastic with the shots in the library when it rained and was very professional."

Siobhan and Darren at Norwood Hall

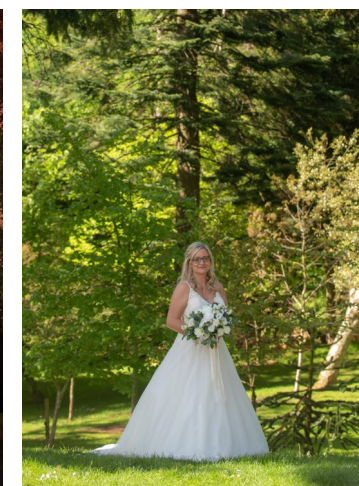

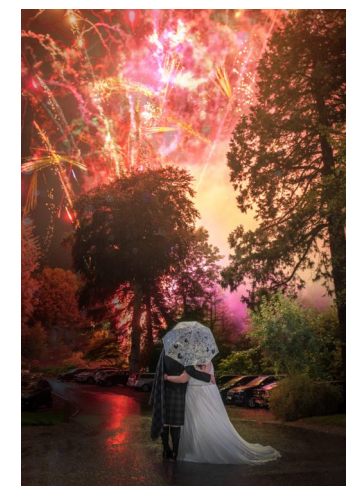

"Photos are amazing! We have had a look through and added the ones we love the most to favourites."

We like to keep it simple, so it's enjoyable and not just another tick on your list. We love to tell you what we're good at, who we are and what you can expect. We won't try to be all things to all people because photography style and the photographer you work with is a very personal choice. Our style is to combine reportage shots with some more traditional portrait posed ones, to ensure we cover all aspects of the day, and make sure you don't have a, "I wish we'd had this shot" moment in years to come.

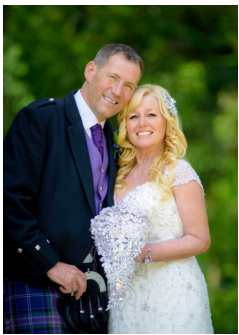

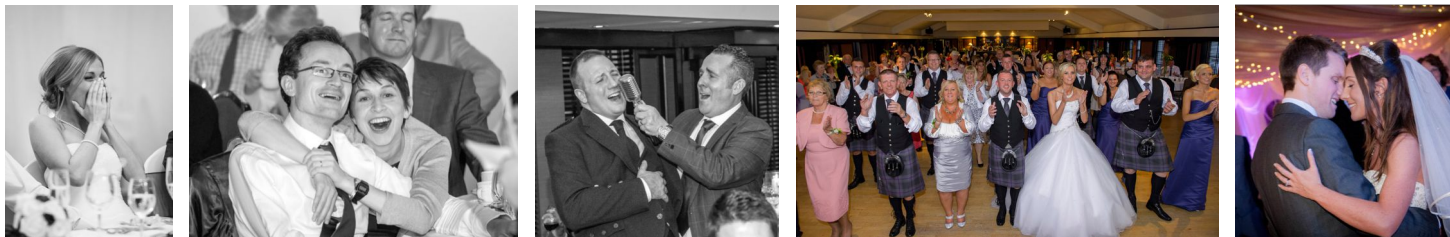

Approach – What's it like to have me as your photographer?

My approach comes from years of experience and knowing how to get the best out of every couple on their wedding day. I love working with people, places and details.

From your initial meeting with me, right through to presenting you with your album or digital files, I strike the right balance – I listen, advise, and use my expertise and experience to create the results you want, without ever taking over. The day is yours and as a photographer I'm simply there to capture it and show you at your very best.

Once you've made a booking with me, I am committed to you for that date and take no other bookings for weddings on that day. This ensures you have my full attention and that I provide the very best service.

"Omg u have just made me cry !! They r AMAZING. Even beyond my expectations !!!! I'm going to get some big ones of me & john & me & my kids. I can't wait to see them on my iPad. Looking forward to seeing the ones David took too. Thank you soooooo much xx Love"

Pricing and packages

Our pricing is simpler than ever. We want it to be easy for you to see how we can fit into your budget and what you get. And to make life even easier we also don't ask you to make decisions (or payment) on how you would like your photos displayed (as files, in a book, prints, canvases, etc) until you've seen the images. If, however you know beforehand that you would like a book, an inclusive package price can be agreed.

Standard Norwood Package £800 reduced to £650 for Norwood clients

This includes all the classic moments of the day:

- Best man and groom arriving
- All the guests arriving
- The service
- Family groups
- Bridal groups
- Bridal portraits
- Mock cake cutting

You can also choose to extend how long I'm with you on the day to capture even more of your wedding.

Bridal preparation £200 reduced to £175

For some brides, this is a key part of the day that is a must to be captured and remembered.

The special time you spend with your parents, siblings, bridesmaids laughing and getting ready – the anticipation of the day ahead and the special moment of stepping into your dress and finally leaving for the wedding.

Drinks reception and speeches £200 reduced to £175

The drinks reception is a great time to photograph your friends and family enjoying the wedding, before they make their way to their table where more great informal images can be captured. Photography during the speeches is also a fantastic time to capture your guests laughing (and sometimes crying) while they are less aware of the camera.

Evening Reception and Dancing £350 reduced to £300

The room is transformed and as the evening guests start to arrive I capture them greeting you both. I then of course photograph the iconic first dance (and grand march if you are having this). I will then stay to get the first few dances and any evening entertainment including fireworks, capturing the atmosphere of the reception.

All day package: If you choose to have all the the options then the total is reduced from £1500 to £1350
